Wehlener Sonnenuhr Riesling Spätlese Dr. Pauly-Bergweiler / Bernkastel-Kues

Terrior	"Wehlener Sonnenuhr" (Sundial of Wehlen) is a vineyard located in the heart of the Middle Moselle wine region, directly opposite the well-known wine village of Wehlen. The small south-southwest-facing terraces reach up to 250 meters above sea level. Bluish-grey, primarily stony slate from the Devonian Period combined with deposits of loess and quartzite result very mineraly wines. The increased work demanded by cultivating the steepest area right around the sundial is rewarded each year.
Description	The Sonnenuhr has a fresh and straight forward late harvest character. Ripe yellow stone fruit (vineyard peach, apricot) and tropical fruit (pineapple, mango) are underlined by the fine minerally terrior of Wehlen.
Suggestion	This Riesling is a great food wine. Try it with marinated chicken and bell-pepper-mango chutney with rice.
Quality Level	Spätlese
Varietal	100 % Riesling

We say:

„The Wehlener Sonnenuhr has an enormous aging potential! We love the mineral character coming up over the years. Enjoy it!”
